

INCLUSION AND EXCLUSION 2005

WORKSHOPS

Beverley Prevatt Goldstein

Exploring the gap between rhetoric and reality

Sharon Wray, Senior Lecturer, University of Huddersfield

Michelle Bartholomew, Senior Lecturer, University of Huddersfield

What constitutes good health? The perceptions and experiences of older African Caribbean Women

Carlis Douglas, Organisational Change Consultant, DMTD Consultant

From surviving to thriving: black women managers in Britain

Roger Steel, Development Officer, INVOLVE Support Unit

Vinod Kumar, INVOLVE member

Research and black and minority ethnic communities: it is a different experience?

Shamsul Alam, Research Officer, London School of Economics

Visual impairment, ethnicity and social care policy: perspectives of British Bangladeshis with visual impairment

Becca Singh, Consultant

Making change happen: Improving support for black disabled people

Shruti Uppal, Research Assistant, Department of Applied Psychological Sciences, City University

It's your life: Exploring the sexual health needs of young unaccompanied refugees and asylum-seekers in Hackney

Sherry Peck and Camille Warrington, Cambridgeshire Travellers Initiative - Ormiston Children and Families Trust

Gypsy and Traveller Communities: Accommodation, education, health, skills and employment

David Woodger and Dr Jim Cowan, Goldsmiths College, University of London

Reconsidering tackling institutional racism

Mabel Lie, Research Associate, School of Geography, Politics and Sociology, University of Newcastle upon Tyne

Methodological issues in qualitative research on minority ethnic research participants

Natalie Branosky and Nicola Smith, Centre for Economic and Social Exclusion

Service or disservice? A review of UK and international literature on access to mainstream services for people from ethnic minority groups

Shamser Sinha, Research Fellow, Department of Applied Psycho Social Sciences, City University

Family and peer networks in intimate and sexual relationships amongst teenagers in a multicultural area of East London

Ronny Flynn and Shameem Nawaz, Open University/REU

Extending access to services for disabled children from Black families: a case study of research into practice

Sonia McKay, Senior Research Fellow, Working Lives Research Institute, London Metropolitan University

The motivations and aspirations of new workers

Diana De, Senior Lecturer, School of Care Sciences, University of Glamorgan

Are their genes compatible?

Michelle Lloyd, Programme Co-ordinator, Save the Children

Having our say: peer research with young Gypsy/Travellers in Scotland

Sukhwant Dhaliwall, Racism Research Fellow, London Metropolitan University

The housing experiences of black and minority ethnic disabled and D/deaf people

Val Bissland, School of Care Sciences, University of Strathclyde

A Learning Partnership – an action learning project